April 27.—The Right Hon, E. Barton, the Australian Premier, had a farewell banquet given him at Sydney, on his departure for England. In a speech on the occasion he referred to the representation of SPONGES !! United Australia at the Coronation as sympbolical of the unity of the Empire. Dacoity Outrages in India. Bombay, April 28.—Serious outrages by gangs of dacosts are reported from the Nasik and Thum districts. Last week four Marwaris returning from the weekly bazaar were backed to pieces, and some of their associates were severely handled Extra police has been drafted in pursuit of the miscreants.

Riots at Madura. Calcutta, April 26, - Serious riots are reported from Madura, in the Madras Presidency, between the Maravars and Chetties, who have been at feud for some time. The Marawars finally closely confined the agent of a Chetty propriator, and other persons. Mr Wilkinson, Superintendent of the Police, and Mr Walsh, Assistant Collector, proceeded to the place and rescould several of the men, but in attempting to resome the agent, they were surrounded, and set upon with sticks. Mr Walsh was injured, but Mr Wilkinson kept the crowd at buy until assistance arrived, when the agent was rescued in an exhausted coulition. The rictors ran away, but many arrosts were made. Mr Walsh is reported to be doing well. Indian Objection to the New

Army Scheme. London, May 1 .- Lord George Hamilton, in reply to a question in the House of Commons, said that he was still correspending with the Secretary of War regarding India's objections to the exten cost involved in the Army Schome, 'We agreed, he said, to pay the extra twopence, but object to the incidence of the

The Latest News. (From Our Own Correspondent.)

Wucnow, May 13. On the 11th inst, Mr Randall, of the British and Foreign Bible Society, returned bere from his journey to Cheong On on the Lung, or Lau Chau Fu, River. He reports that he has had good sales, and has been well treated by the populace and officials throughout the whole journey.

Mr Randall's opinion is that all is quiet East of the Lung River. Rebels are said, however, to be congregating at Tsong Chau, on the East bank, about 90 miles from the mouth of the river.

West of the Lung River all is confusion. The Yau Youg deserters, apparently, have not joined forces with the rebels, but are acting independently. Their object is neither reform nor the overthrow of the Government, but to obtain wealth. It was the You Yung-ites that captured and held for ransom the magistrate of Hing Un, and who seized the Salt and Lekin Stations at Hung Shui Hau, and levied the tolls until the approach of Government troops. Their forces are apparently reduced, for when Shek Lung was last visited by them they

PUBLIC SCHOOL SPORTS.

Suspiciously Fast Times.

The Field newspaper invariably brings HONGKONG RIFLE ASSOCIATION. us, at this time of the year, some interesting reading concerning the running times at the public schools sports. We all know that public school timekeepers have often Spoons only, commencing at 2.30 p.m. kindly hearts, but even the kindliest heart Ranges 200, 500 and 600 yards, 7 shots Defendant-T. W.
